

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Agility contests, with humans and with animals, have been carried out down through history all around the world. Jump cups, made of wire and ganged into sets to be mounted to standards make changing jump heights quick and easy. Because only the cup assemblies have to be replaced when regulations change, the present invention is economical as well.

5